Supplemental Health Options Policy

Health insurance is a good way to help pay the costs of medical treatments that may be necessary, but most plans offered today don't pay all the costs if your treatment requires a visit to your physician, the emergency room, or an extended stay in the hospital.

The average length of stay in a U.S. hospital in 2003 was 4.8 days.<sup>1</sup> Even just a couple of days in the hospital could be costly to you. Lost income, medicines and therapies can quickly add up.

Supplemental health insurance can help protect your hard-earned savings, and it can help you cover some of the costs associated with hospital care.

If you have little or no savings and spending time in the hospital could cause a major financial burden to your family, then S.H.O.P. insurance may help protect your finances.

Here's what you get with the S.H.O.P. policy:

- Benefits paid directly to you unless assigned
- Benefits paid regardless of other coverage
- Coverage available for individual or entire family
- Premium based on age at issue
- Guaranteed renewable to age 65, subject to change in premiums by class

Would your finances be protected if you needed medical treatment or an extended stay in the hospital?

We do not pay any benefits under the hospital intensive care unit benefit for confinement in any care unit that does not qualify as a hospital intensive care unit as defined in the policy or which has been excluded.

This brochure highlights some features of the policy and riders but is not the insurance contract. Only the actual policy and rider provisions control. The policy and riders set forth, in detail, the rights and obligations of both the insured and the insurance company.

The policy and riders are not a Medicare Supplement Policy. If eligible for Medicare, review Medicare Supplement Buyer's Guide available from us.

When applying for coverage, list on the application all policy and rider form numbers, as well as the number of units which pertain to coverage applied for.

The exclusions and other limitations provision of the policy apply to all riders.

The policy is Limited Benefit Supplemental Health Insurance.
